

Informed Consent Statement
James Miller, M.S.W., L.C.S.W.

Thank you for the opportunity to serve you as your counselor. This information is designed to let you know about my educational and professional background, and to ensure that you understand our professional relationship. I am committed to providing you with quality, professional counseling, and your questions or comments are encouraged.

Education, Credentials, Experience

James is a Christian attending a local Mennonite Congregation, married 45 years, with two adult children.

He has worked many years in the Mental Health Counseling field and has experience with a wide variety of situations for which people seek counseling: Anxiety, Depression, Addictions, and Relationship concerns. He counsels with individuals, as well as couples and families. James did his undergraduate work at Goshen College in Indiana, and received his MSW (Masters of Social Work) from Michigan State University. He is licensed as a Clinical Social Worker in both Florida and Pennsylvania. (A professional Vita is available upon request.)

Therapeutic Approach

As a Christian, working within a Christian counseling center, James encourages counselees to reflect on their situation in a way that seeks new solutions to their difficulties; solutions that build on strengths they already have, and that can be adapted to the current life circumstance that is causing distress. James believes there is great power in the process of focused conversation around specific life situations, in a safe, reflective environment.

It is important to realize that your active involvement in the counseling process will be the most influential contribution to your success. Your input is essential in establishing treatment goals, risks and benefits of change, the time commitment involved, and other pertinent aspects of your situation. Periodically, we will evaluate your progress and, if necessary, re-design your treatment plan, goals, and/or methods.

As with any successful intervention, there are both benefits and risks associated with counseling. Risks might include experiencing uncomfortable levels of feelings like sadness, guilt, anxiety, anger or frustration, or having difficulties with other people. Some changes may seem to lead to worsening circumstances in the short run, but over time, with consistent responses, improvement should be experienced.

James looks forward to working with you. During your initial visit, please feel free to ask questions you may have.

Confidentiality

I regard the information you share with me with the greatest respect, so I want to be as clear as possible about how it will be handled. Generally, I will tell no one what you tell me. The privacy and confidentiality of our conversations, and my records, are your privilege and are protected by state law and my profession's ethical principles, in all but a few circumstances. If there is a need to share information in your record, you will first be consulted and asked to sign a release of information form authorizing a transfer of information. The form will specify the information, which you give me permission to release to the other party, and will limit the time period during which the information may be released. You can revoke your permission at any time by simply giving me written notice, and it is revoked from that day forward.

There are the exceptions in which I cannot guarantee confidentiality, legally and/or ethically: (1) when I believe you intend to harm yourself or another person; and, (2) when I believe a child, elder person or vulnerable adult has been or is in danger of being abused or neglected. In rare circumstances, professional counselors can be ordered by a judge to release information. Otherwise, I will not tell anyone anything about your treatment, diagnosis, history, or even that you are a client without your full knowledge and consent, including family members. Please be aware that Samaritan utilizes Quality Control Best Practices to ensure both confidentiality and service review.

Explanation of Dual Relationships

Although our sessions may be very intimate psychologically and spiritually, it is important for you to be assured that we have a professional relationship rather than a social one. Our contact will be limited to sessions you will arrange with me. I cannot accept friend requests for social media from clients. Because I desire to respect your privacy, I will not speak to you in public, unless you speak first. Because ours is a professional relationship I cannot accept gifts having monetary value.

Cancellation Policy

We will schedule our sessions through our mutual agreement. If you are unable to keep an appointment, please call my cell phone to cancel or reschedule at least 24 hours in advance. If I do not receive this advanced notice and you do not have an emergency, you are responsible for a $75 no show or late cancelation fee. Please note that insurance companies, churches and Client Assistance Funds (CAF) do not pay for missed sessions, therefore you will be responsible for the $75 fee.

Length of Sessions

I assure you that my services will be rendered in a professional manner consistent with the highest ethical standards. Typically, sessions are 45 to 50 minutes in duration.

Emails and Text Messages

In order to protect your private health information in compliance with HIPPA, please do not email or text confidential information or details about therapy. Email and text will be limited to scheduling of appointments and forwarding resources as relevant. I am unable to provide therapy interventions or recommendations via email or text. If you have a question or comment in-between sessions, please call or reserve these notes for the next scheduled appointment.

Working with Minors and Parents

While privacy in psychotherapy is very important, particularly with adolescents, parental involvement is also essential to successful treatment and this may require that some information be shared with parents as it relates to helping the child or teen implement our interventions and if there is a risk or danger to the child or teen. Information shared will be at the discretion of the therapist based on protecting the therapeutic relationship with the child and teenager.

If you share legal custody parental consent from both parents is needed. Documentation to support parental custody and or signature of both parents may be requested.

Fees/Method of Payment

In return for a fee of $115 for an initial session and $100 for each subsequent session, I agree to provide counseling services for you. Please be prepared to pay at each session with cash, personal check or credit card. Fees will be charged for bounced checks. I will provide a receipt for payment upon request. If for financial reasons, you are unable to pay the full fee, please request an "Application for Client Assistance" and return it with the requested information before your session. It is important that patient balances are paid to avoid interruption of services.

Billing/Insurance Reimbursement

If you wish to seek reimbursement for my services from your health insurance company, I will complete any reasonable forms related to your reimbursement provided by you or your insurance company. You will be expected to pay co-payments/deductibles at the time of your session. It is your responsibility to determine your insurance coverage. As a courtesy, we are willing to file your insurance claim. It is important for you to know that you will be required to give me permission to share any information with your insurance company that they need to process your claim.
